

Name: Erin Michael
Title: Vice President of Corporate Accounting
Location: Mableton, Georgia

Erin grew up in small town in East Tennessee and attended East Tennessee State University where she earned a bachelor's degree in business administration before moving on to earn a Master of Accountancy from the University of Georgia.

Her career began in 2005, at Ernst & Young in Atlanta, there she spent seven years in the audit practice serving both public and private companies, while receiving her CPA in the state of Georgia. From there she moved to Delta Air Lines management where she held several management roles with this financial reporting.

In 2015, Erin joined the RNDC family as a Corporate Accounting Manager and is now the VP of Corporate Accounting where she has enhanced RNDC's internal technical accounting and GAAP reporting, streamlined processes, and implemented new technologies. Her passion lies in coaching and career development.

Erin believes, "If my team is not progressing in their careers, then I am failing as a leader. This is why I am honored to be a part of the Women's Leadership forum, it empowered me to embrace my differences as a woman, and created an opportunity for me to establish a Working Moms Group at RNDC, to provide a support system for working mothers in all phases of motherhood and their career."
