

Name: Jennifer Correa
Title: Director of Wine, Louisiana
Location: New Orleans, LA

Jennifer started her professional journey with RNDC as an On-Premise Wine Salesperson and quickly moved into a District Manager role. After five years and much consideration, she left RNDC, and in 2012, was recognized by Deutsch Family Wines as National Sales Associate of the Year.

One year later, Jennifer went to work for Ste. Michelle Wine Estates as State Manager –where she worked as a supplier partner with RNDC. After accomplishing many of her personal goals on the supplier side Jennifer knew that she wanted to return to RNDC.

So, in 2016 she accepted a role in New Orleans as an On-Premise Area Manager. Today Jennifer's current role is Director of Wine—Platinum Division, in which she is managing the Platinum Louisiana portfolio at the state level for all channels.

Jennifer is from the New Orleans area, and resides there with her husband, and their two sons. When not working, she enjoys spending time with her family, traveling, attending local festivals and Saints football games on the weekends.
