

Name: Orin Darrington
Title: Director of Sales, Wine
Location: San Antonio, TX

Orin Darrington has more than 15 years of experience in the alcohol distribution industry. He joined Republic National Distributing Company (RNDC) immediately after earning his master's in hospitality management from Texas Tech University. Orin has held several leadership positions at RNDC, including Division Manager On-Premise and Retail as well as VP of Sales in New Mexico where he managed wine, spirits and beer for the entire state.

Relocating back to Texas in 2021, he assumed the role of Director of Wine for the South Texas market, covering all of San Antonio and Austin. Orin also co-leads the Soul Associate Resource Group, which aims to provide a safe space for all RNDC associates to educate, advance, share experiences, and improve the emotional and cultural intelligence regarding the Black community. He is a progressive thinker and change agent who strives to push the beverage alcohol industry forward.

Orin enjoys staying active, playing golf, and spending time with friends and family.

